

If you allow one corporate parent to own many media you will silence the voices of most local sources. The Clear Channel ownership has already proven this...many communities have no "local" coverage or services. Huge conglomerate ownership of radio and TV...BAD idea. Please don't allow this!